Removal of Rebei Money To American Side of the Line Results in Governor's Detration.

Nogales, Sonora, Mex., March 9.— Charged with the embessiement of state funds governor Jose Maytorena of Sonora and Carlos Randall, secretary of state, were arrested at Hermosillo Sunday upon orders of Gen. Alvaro Obregon, and are under guard by "Constitutionalist" authorities at the state capital. The charge relates to the sending of large sums of public moneys to this point for deposit in banks on the American side.

The arrests were made by Gen. Obregon as the result of ropresentations made to him by consul Gayou, "Constitutionalist" representative at Nogales. Gayou is said to have received large sums of money in packages from Hermosillo. No letter accompanied these consignments and Gayou communicated The Cooks' and Waiters' union members are planning for the big union

ORPHANS OF PATRIOTS
Orphans made by the death of Constitutionalist soldiers will be cared for by the rebel government. If Pancho Villa has the sayso in the matter, he declares. Already, the rebel chief has begun his humanitarian dampaign along those lines. Four orphans, the sons of men who have died on the battlefield under the rebel colors, are to be sent this week from Chihuahua to a school in St. Louis, Mo., probably the Christian Brothers' college.

They will be taken to school by Carlos Juaregui, the young man who was instrumental in making possible Villa's escape from jall in Mexico City. The orphans will be sent to school for a term of four years and the expenses will be paid out of the rebel treasury. Fathers of the boys were officers in Villa's army.
